

References.

Bowell B (1992) A risk to others. NursingTimes. 88, 4, 38-40.

Department of Health/Public Health Laboratory Service (1995)
Infection Control - Guidance on the Control of Infection in Hospitals.
London.

Emmerson AM et al (1996) The second national prevalence surgery of
of infection in hospitals - an overview of the results. *Journal of Hospital
Infection*. 32, 175-190.

Haley RW (1986) *Managing Hospital Infection Control for Cost effectiveness:
a Strategy for Reducing Infectious Complications*. Chicago, American Hospital Publishing.

Infection Control Nurses Association (2002) *A comprehensive glove
choice*. Bathgate: ICNA

Infection Control Nurses Association and Royal College of General Practitioners (2003) Infection control guidance for general practice. Bathgate: ICNA. (Tel: 01506 811077 for copies)

Meers P et al (1995) The Microbiology and Epidemiology of Infection for Health Science Students. London, Chapman & Hall

National Patient Safety Alert (2004) Clean hands help to save lives. London: NPSA (Patient Safety Alert No.4).

NHS Estates (2004a) A protocol for the local decontamination of surgical instruments, London: Department of Health.

NHS Executive (1999a) Controls Assurance in Infection Control: Decontamination of Medical Devices - HSC (99)179. London, DOH.

Plowman RM et al (1997) Hospital acquired Infection. London, Office of Health Economics.